

ECB Scholarship for Ukrainian graduates

Terms and Conditions

1. The European Central Bank's (the ECB) scholarship for Ukrainians enrolled in a master's degree in Ukrainian (scholarship) consists of a scholarship award of 10,000 EUR, which is disbursed in one instalment following acceptance of the scholarship.
2. To be eligible for a scholarship, applicants must be:
 - a) A Ukrainian national
 - b) pursuing a master's degree in the fields of computing, economics, engineering, law, statistics or other relevant fields (e.g. finance, mathematics and political science) on a full-time or part-time basis at a Ukrainian academic institution with degree-granting powers, and
 - c) maintaining an average grade of 80 percent or higher (cum laude or equivalent)
3. All applicants must submit a completed online application that includes:
 - a) proof of acceptance at or enrolment in a master's degree program in one of the above-mentioned fields,
 - b) official transcripts of their undergraduate academic record,
 - c) current résumé, and
 - d) motivation, including information such as reasons for pursuing a specific field of study and research and career interests.
4. The ECB reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to modify, amend or cancel the scholarship at any time without notice. The ECB shall have full discretion to decide all questions regarding the awarding of scholarships and the administration of the terms and conditions of the scholarship. Applicants shall have no claim against the ECB based on a decision rejecting their application for a scholarship or the ECB's evaluation of applications.

5. All recipients are responsible for informing themselves of the tax consequences of receiving the 10,000 EUR award.

6. The ECB may withdraw the scholarship if the recipient

- has discontinued his/her studies;
- fails to meet the eligibility requirements of the scholarship;
- fails to meet the terms and conditions of the scholarship;
- has been suspended or excluded from an academic institution or course of study;
- has provided incorrect, false or misleading information or withheld relevant information in the scholarship application or after receiving a scholarship offer;
- fails to complete a master's degree in one of the above-mentioned fields within a maximum of four years from the date of acceptance of the scholarship; or
- behaves in any way that the ECB, at its sole discretion, deems inappropriate.

If the award is withdrawn, the recipient may be required to repay some or all the scholarship award.
