RECOMMENDATION OF THE EUROPEAN CENTRAL BANK

of [date Month YYYY]

amending Recommendation ECB/2017/10 on common specifications for the exercise of some options and discretions available in Union law by national competent authorities in relation to less significant institutions

[(ECB/YYYY/XX)]

THE GOVERNING COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN CENTRAL BANK,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EU) No 1024/2013 of 15 October 2013 conferring specific tasks on the European Central Bank concerning policies relating to the prudential supervision of credit institutions¹, and in particular Article 4(3) and Article 6(1) and (5)(c) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) On 4 April 2017 the European Central Bank (ECB) adopted Recommendation ECB/2017/10 of the European Central Bank² (hereinafter the 'O&D Recommendation'), in which it established common specifications for the exercise of certain options and discretions available in Union law by national competent authorities (NCAs) in relation to less significant institutions. Legislation introduced since the adoption of the O&D Recommendation has amended or deleted some of the options and discretions provided in Union law that were included in the O&D Recommendation, and the ECB Guide on options and discretions available in Union law of November 2016 (hereinafter the 'ECB Guide') has also been updated. Therefore, certain consequential amendments to the O&D Recommendation are necessary.
- (2) With respect to the options and discretions related to consolidated supervision and waivers of prudential requirements, in line with the specifications contained in Chapter 1 of Section II of the ECB Guide, NCAs should be encouraged to adopt a prudent approach when granting such waivers on an individual basis. Rules on the identification of the consolidating supervisor and the methods and scope of consolidation and sub-consolidation should also be applied in a manner consistent with the ECB Guide.

- (3) With regard to liquidity waivers at the cross border level, the ECB recommends a specific approach for less significant institutions given that not all the specifications for the assessment of applications included in the ECB Guide are relevant for these institutions.
- (4) The ECB recommends a consistent and prudent approach with respect to options and discretions related to own funds requirements, in line with the specifications contained in Chapter 2 of Section II of the ECB Guide. To reflect specificities of less significant institutions in relation to the excess capital margin requirement for reductions of own funds, certain adjustments of those specifications are necessary.
- (5) The ECB recommends a consistent and prudent approach with respect to the options and discretions related to liquidity requirements, which should follow the specifications set out in Chapter 6 of Section II of the ECB Guide, as these options and discretions have an impact on the calculation of liquidity coverage ratio requirements, for example by specifying the treatment of specific inflows and outflows.
- (6) As regards outflows from trade finance off-balance-sheet related products, specifications have been added to the ECB Guide to take account of the new ECB policy which allows additional flexibility in the determination of outflow rates. Therefore, to ensure consistency in the application of outflow rates to trade finance off-balance sheet exposures amongst significant and less significant institutions, NCAs should follow the specifications included in the ECB Guide.
- (7) As regards the outflow rates to be applied to stable retail deposits, certain factors have impeded the practical application of the discretion addressed in Article 13 of Regulation (EU) 2016/445 of the European Central Bank (ECB/2016/4)³ whereby competent authorities may authorise institutions to apply a 3% outflow rate to stable retail deposits covered by a deposit guarantee scheme (DGS), subject to the prior approval of the European Commission in accordance with Article 24(4) and (5) of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2015/61⁴. Further evidence and analysis are necessary in order to demonstrate that the run-off rates for stable retail deposits covered by a DGS as referred to in Article 24(5) of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2015/61 would be below 3% during any stress period experienced consistent with the scenarios referred to in Article 5 of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2015/61. In the absence of such evidence and analysis, the general specification of a 3% outflow rate has been removed from Guideline ECB/2017/9 of the European Central Bank⁵ concerning the exercise of options and discretions available in Union law by national competent authorities in relation to less significant institutions. The ECB's position towards this option has been set out in Section III of the of the ECB Guide. To ensure consistency in the exercise of options and discretions in relation to significant and less significant institutions, NCAs should adopt the same position.

⁵ Guideline (EU) 2017/697 of the European Central Bank of 4 April 2017 on the exercise of the options and discretions available in Union law by national competent authorities in relation to less significant institutions (ECB/2017/9) (OJ L 101, 13.4.2017, p. 156).

- (8) With respect to the options and discretions related to the leverage ratio, the ECB recommends a consistent and prudent approach, in common with the specifications set out in Chapter 3 of Section I of the ECB Guide and Chapter 7 of Section II thereof.
- (9) With respect to the options and discretions related to intermediate parent undertakings and the possibility for competent authorities to allow two or more institutions in the Union which are part of the same third-country group to have two intermediate EU parent undertakings pursuant to Article 21b(2) of Directive (EU) 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council⁶, and to the relevance of such possibility in the case of less significant institutions, the ECB recommends that NCAs adopt an approach consistent with that set out in Chapter 9 of Section II of the ECB Guide, in order to ensure a level playing field.
- (10) With respect to the options and discretions related to reporting requirements for institutions, in particular concerning valuation of assets and off-balance-sheet items and concerning reporting waivers, the ECB recommends that NCAs follow the approach set out in Chapter 8 of Section II of the ECB Guide, so as to ensure both a consistent application of policy standards across the Single Supervisory Mechanism and a level playing field.
- (11) With respect to the options and discretions related to governance, the O&D Recommendation should be amended to reflect legislative changes concerning the supervisory treatment of (mixed) financial holding companies.
- (12) Therefore, Recommendation ECB/2017/10 should be amended accordingly,

HAS ADOPTED THIS RECOMMENDATION:

IIa.

Own funds requirements

1. Article 78(1)(b) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013: reduction of own funds: excess capital margin requirement

- 1.1 An NCA should determine the excess margin required pursuant to Article 78(1)(b) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 for the purpose of a reduction of own funds, provided that the conditions of Article 78(1) are met and after assessing all of the following factors:
- (a) whether the credit institution taking any of the actions referred to in Article 77(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 would continue to exceed, over a three-year horizon, the overall capital requirements set out in the most recent applicable supervisory review and evaluation process (SREP) decision by at least the guidance on additional own funds set out in the same SREP decision;
 - (b) whether the credit institution taking any of the actions referred to in Article 77(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 would continue to exceed, over a three-year horizon, the requirements laid down in Directive 2014/59/EU by at least the margin which the National Resolution Authority or the Single Resolution Board, in agreement with the NCA, would consider necessary to fulfil the condition set out in Article 78a of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013;
 - (c) the impact of the planned reduction on the relevant tier of own funds;
 - (d) whether the credit institution taking any of the actions referred to in Article 77(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 would continue to exceed, over a three-year horizon, the leverage ratio requirement laid down in Article 92(1)(d) of that Regulation, and the additional own funds requirement to address the risk of excessive leverage set out in the most recent applicable SREP decision, by at least the guidance on additional own funds to address the risk of excessive leverage set out in that SREP decision.
- 1.2 Applications to reduce own funds received from credit institutions that do not adhere to the margins set out above should still be approved on a case-by-case basis where they are duly justified by well-founded prudential arguments. Where the margin under point (b) of paragraph 1.1 is not adhered to, the NCA should seek the opinion of the National Resolution Authority or the Single Resolution Board on whether the own funds reduction may jeopardise the fulfilment of the requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities laid down in Directive 2014/59/EU.

- 1.3 Where for the purposes of point (a) or (d) of paragraph 1.1 the credit institution is not subject to guidance on additional own funds, the margin must be determined on a case-by-case basis, having regard to the specific circumstances of the credit institution.

2. Second subparagraph of Article 78(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013: reduction of own funds: general prior permission

An NCA should grant the general prior permission provided for in the second subparagraph of Article 78(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 where the conditions set out therein and in Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No 241/2014(*) are met. An NCA should determine the margin specified in the second subparagraph of Article 78(1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013, after assessing all of the factors set out in paragraph 1 of Section IIa of this Recommendation.

- (*) Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No 241/2014 of 7 January 2014 supplementing Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and the Council with regard to regulatory technical standards for Own Funds requirements for institutions (OJ L 74, 14.3.2014, p. 8).';

3. In Part Two, Section V is deleted;
4. The Annex is replaced by the Annex to this Recommendation.
