Dear Sir or Madam,

We are writing to you in your capacity as a fee debtor registered with the European Central Bank (ECB) online portal for supervisory fees.

We would like to inform you that the fee notices for 2018 will now be issued in December 2018 and the respective payment deadline will be January 2019.

In the interim, should you wish to Estimate your fee, the relevant section of the ECB's banking supervision website has been updated to reflect the information for fee period 2018. Please be advised that information provided can only help you to estimate your fee. The ECB calculates your fee based on the fee factors you provide, and the exact amount levied by the ECB will be stated in your annual supervisory fee notice.
