Dear Sir or Madam,

We are writing to you in your capacity as a fee debtor registered with the European Central Bank (ECB) online portal <https://pasos.ecb.europa.eu/banklogin> for supervisory fees.

We would like to thank those banks that have submitted their fee factors to the respective national competent authority. Please note that your fee factor data are now published on the online portal for your review. If you consider the data to be incorrect, you may comment on them by contacting the ECB by 18:00 CET on 17 August 2017 at the following e-mail address: SSM-fee-enquiries@ecb.europa.eu. Thereafter, these fee factors will be used to calculate your annual supervisory fee for 2017.

The ECB has estimated the fee factors for the small number of banks that did not provide them in accordance with Article 10(4) of the Regulation of ECB on the supervisory fees (ECB/2014/41) <https://www.bankingsupervision.europa.eu/legalframework/ecblegal/framework/html/index.en.html>. Please note that failure to provide the fee factors is considered as a breach of the above Regulation.

If you have any questions regarding your obligations or any other issue related to fees, the ECB stands ready to provide you with the necessary support by e-mail at SSM-fee-enquiries@ecb.europa.eu. In addition, the ECB's banking supervision website <https://www.bankingsupervision.europa.eu/organisation/fees/html/index.en.html> provides useful general information about supervisory fees.

Kind regards,

The ECB SSM fee enquiries team
